As the primary contact/voting representative for the company's membership, I give my permission for these employees to receive any and all communications from the Greater Atlanta HBA, the Housing Institute/Certified Professional Home Builders program, HomeAid Atlanta, and selected third-party organizations that communicate with member companies and their employees on behalf of their entities named above. The organizations referred to above primarily communicate with member companies and their employees through email. Information that member companies and their employees can expect to receive are weekly association-wide newsletters; class and event notifications; membership benefits and services; political, regulatory and government affairs actions and updates; and solicitation of monetary contributions and durable goods and services for charitable endeavors. Note that by providing contact information, you are agreeing to have this published in annual membership directories and member search features on web sites. If you consent to those practices, please sign below.

*Dues payments to the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association (GAHBA) are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income tax purposes. Dues payments may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense, subject to an exclusion policy for lobbying activity. Because a portion of your dues is used for lobbying by the Home Builders Association of Georgia ($69) and the National Association of Home Builders ($30), these amounts are not deductible for income tax purposes. You are advised to consult a tax professional regarding the deduction of dues payments to the HBA.

Code of Ethics and Membership Agreement

Code of Ethics: Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association members believe and affirm that home ownership can and should be within the reach of every American family; American homes should be well designed, well constructed and well located in attractive communities with educational, recreational, religious and shopping facilities accessible to all; and American homes should be built under the free enterprise system. To achieve these goals, we pledge allegiance to the following principles and policies: our paramount responsibility is to our customer, our community and our country; honesty is our guiding business policy; high standards of health, safety and sanitation shall be built into every home; members shall deal fairly with their respective employees, trade contractors and suppliers; as members of a progressive industry, we encourage research to develop new materials, new building techniques and improved methods of home financing to the end that every home purchaser may get the greatest possible value for every dollar; all sound legislative proposals affecting our industry and the people we serve shall have our informed and vigorous support; we hold inviolate the free enterprise system and the American way of life; we pledge our support to our associates, our local, state and national associations and all related industries concerned with the preservation of legitimate rights and freedoms. We assume these responsibilities freely and solemnly, mindful that they are party of our obligation as a Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association member company.

Membership Agreement: I agree to abide by the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association (Association). I further agree to comply with the Code of Ethics approved by the Association. I acknowledge that by joining the Association, I am also a member of the Home Builders Association of Georgia (HBAG) and the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB). If the company's membership in the Association becomes inactive or is terminated for any reason, I agree to immediately discontinue use of any and all Association logos and insignias, as well as that of HBAG and NAHB.
